

Young Turkeys
YOUNG DUCKS
ROASTING CHICKENS
FANCY BROILERS
GUINEA CHICKENS
FOWL for salad
NATIVE VEAL
VERY FANCY NATIVE LAMB

Somers Bros.
MR. H. T. MILLER'S
School for Dancing
Oak St., will re-open Oct. 22, 1911.
Classes: Beginners 2 p. m., Advanced 2.45 p. m. For circular call, write, or phone 1449.

LANG
Dry Cleaner and Dyer
157 Franklin St.
SUITS PRESSED 50c
Our Wagon Calls Everywhere

A BARGAIN
Berkshire Bond Typewriter Paper,
3 1-2x13,
$1.20 a Ream
The best on the market at this price.
A-1 Typewriter Ribbons and Carbon Paper.

MISS JEWETT'S
Public Stenographer and Shorthand Teacher,
283 Main Street.

SHOWTUCK SAFE
SPRING WATER SATISFYING
Tel. 34-2. Norwich, Conn.

HEADQUARTERS FOR
Fresh stock of Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Also Provisions always on hand. Free lunch every Saturday evening.
The Westery House,
Formerly Dr. J. O'Brien's, 68 No. Main.
Kenyon & Pickens, Props.

THE AUTO-TRANSFER CO.
Successor to
The Norwich Parcel Delivery.
Office: 263 West Main St. Telephone 175-5.
Branch Office: 162 Main St. Telephone 166-2.
ROBERT W. OTIS.

Subscribe With Us Now for Your Magazines for 1912
and we will save you money as prices of some of them will be advanced soon.

CRANSTON & CO.

FLAGS
Automobile, Carriage, Fur, Rubber Interlined, Wool, Waterproof, Plush.
A large assortment.
Prices to suit buyer.

THE L. L. CHAPMAN CO.
14 Bath Street, Norwich, Conn.

Allow Me Please
to quote you prices or to give you estimates on all kinds of contract work, carpenter work, painting, etc., etc. Jobbing promptly attended to. Estimates cheerfully given.

C. M. WILLIAMS
General Contractor and Builder,
218 MAIN STREET.
Phone 379.

BOY KILLED BY AUTO AT FLANDERS
Struck by Mud Guard of Fitch Crandall's Car and Fatally Hurt.

While driving through Flanders, in East Lyme, B. H. automobile, late Wednesday, Fitch Crandall, of New London, struck and almost instantly killed Theodore Raymond, five years old, Crandall, who was driving at about fifteen miles an hour, turning west on the road to pass a truck, and as he did so, Crandall's mud guard struck the child directly in front of the machine, and the child was killed. No blame was attached to Crandall, and he was allowed to go.

Can Enter Academy on Certificates.
At a recent meeting of the board of trustees of the Norwich Free Academy, it was voted that the schools of Montville shall be placed on the same footing as Norwich schools as regards the privilege of certification of pupils to the Academy. The system is as follows: All schools that graduate more than one in the year may send any or all the highest half of the class by certification instead of examination. Schools whose graduates have more than one in the year may send a third in the same way.

The Newfoundlander is said to have the best physique of all English-speaking peoples.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Wednesday, Oct. 11, 1911.

VARIOUS MATTERS

A meeting of Seaview Pomona is to be held in Hamburg Thursday.

Favors for Halloween are already appearing in the store windows.

Yesterday's warm sun encouraged a few boat owners to venture out on the river.

Fruit growers in the suburbs are sending some nice looking quinces to market.

Most of the schools are preparing patriotic exercises for tomorrow, Columbus day.

Lead quarters, poor imitations of the silver ones, have been detected in some of the state towns.

A number of city artists linger about Nook, Mystic and Lyme, sketching during the pleasant October days.

Local people who attended the Danbury Fair last week learn that the total attendance for the week was 55,348.

This is not Indian summer. That pleasant period does not begin until Martinmas, St. Martin's day, November 11.

The ladies of the Mohegan church will give a musical entertainment this evening at 7.30 o'clock. Refreshments free—adv.

State Tax Commissioner William H. Cady is retaining cities and towns that the state tax must be paid before November 10.

Boarding houses about the city are having an unusually busy and prosperous season, many of them having to refuse many applicants.

Botanists are improving their opportunity to study the last of the fall flowers. Many interesting specimens are found in Mohegan park.

The board of directors of the Universalist church in Meriden, Tuesday, at 10 a. m.

It is noted in various places that last week was the healthiest week in the city, the death rate being low, and fewer contagious cases being reported.

Capt. Thomas Hamilton and Surg. Lafayette G. Rudd of the East Lyme street railway have gone to Atlantic City to attend the annual street railway men's convention.

The general conference of Congregational churches of Connecticut is to be held with the Danbury church on Tuesday, November 14, to provide delegates are expected to be present.

A new concrete sidewalk is being put in on Cliff street in front of the Peck-Williams property. The new sidewalk was laid by the city, and was granted at this point at a recent council meeting.

Friends of Mrs. Mary Riley of No. 61 Bowtell avenue are pleased to learn that she has been relieved of catarracts and has entirely recovered her sight through an operation performed by Dr. A. Peck five weeks ago.

Mrs. Emma Shaw Coleclough, whose summer home is in Thompson, is to lecture at Churchville house, Providence, on alternate Wednesday mornings, beginning October 25, on her experience during several visits to South America.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kruck of Lee avenue, Norwich Town, have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Mary Amelia, to Frederick Karkut, on the evening of Wednesday, October 25, at 7.30 o'clock at the German Lutheran church.

Walter H. Lee of Niantic has sold 300 acres of his woodland for sale to a New London purchaser, who has already begun installing a sawmill, and will cut down the trees, haul them to the mill, and to run the sawmill.

Work began Monday with a force of about twenty men on the new wharf building for the American Breakwater company of Philadelphia, which company recently purchased the 200-acre Bollen farm north of the navy yard. The wharf will be about 1,000 feet long.

Worcester papers state that the officials of All Saints' Episcopal church are puzzled over the seating problem for October 15, when Bishop-elect Thomas P. Davies is to be consecrated. The church accommodates but 800, yet 900 or more are expected to be issued for the services, at 10.30 a. m.

Ribbons, candies, tiny flags, etc. are selling well for Columbus day favors on Thursday. The colors in the flag today are red, white and green, and in the flag of Spain, under which Columbus sailed through the beneficence of King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella, the stripes are red and yellow.

Arrangements are progressing for the field day of the Connecticut society, Sons of the American Revolution, to be held in New London, October 17. A banquet will be held at the Hotel Crandall, and 200 members and their guests will be taken in automobiles for visits to historic spots about the city.

At the Brockton fair, the bull Bessie's Duke, secured recently by Thomas W. Lawson from Dr. Morgan of Hadley, who has a fine kind of Jersey cow, was sold for $1,000, and was awarded the grand champion award on all the grounds. Martha's Duke has been under the care of Walter J. Condit, herman at the Hadley farm, since the animal was six months old.

In hunting rabbits a dog or ferret or other may be used from September 30 to January 15, from the beginning of the open season until the end, but a gun may be used only from September 30 to January 15, and some of them would shoot birds.

The semi-annual meeting of the local county medical association will be held next Tuesday at Mansfield, where Dr. J. H. Stafford Springs, as usual. The change in place is made on account of an invitation from the superintendent of the new Connecticut colony for epileptics at Mansfield to meet there and inspect the privilege of certification of pupils to the Academy. The system is as follows: All schools that graduate more than one in the year may send any or all the highest half of the class by certification instead of examination. Schools whose graduates have more than one in the year may send a third in the same way.

Surprise Party.
At the homes of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Church a surprise party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Potter. Friends and relatives from Norwich, Truro, and other places were present. A shower was given the bride and groom, consisting of china, glassware and silver. Games were played and a lunch was served. The evening was most pleasantly spent.

Dr. H. M. Bishop a Director.
The bank of Southern California and the Globe Savings bank of Los Angeles have consolidated, stated the Los Angeles Times. The new bank, the combined banks will be $2,000,000, with deposits of $1,500,000. One of the directors is Dr. H. M. Bishop, formerly of this city, where he is well known homeopathic physician.

PERSONAL

George Gley has returned to Mystic from Norwich.

Francis Martin of Bridgeport is visiting friends in Norwich.

Arthur Fitzgerald, who is a policeman in Troy, N. Y., is visiting relatives on Summit street.

Clarence E. Day, formerly of this city is now superintendent of the Holyoke Box & Lumber Co.

Major and Mrs. Hadial A. Hull and family of New London have closed their summer home at Quaker Hill.

Miss Della Marshall of Norwich has returned, after spending the past two weeks at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Tremblah Gleason, of Minerva street, Derby.

Horace F. Burdick left North Stonington Sunday morning for Paton, California, to bring home his son, Frederick, who has been seriously ill for some time.

Captain Crandall of the steamer Restless, who has made his home at Fishers island during the summer, has brought his family back to New London for the winter.

CONNECTICUT'S DEATH TRAP.
The Railroad Crossing at New London a Dangerous Place.

As we read in the New London Day, says the Hartford Courant, that the crossing tender at the State street railroad, which has been in use for 18 months' service. We do not blame him; indeed, we congratulate him on his escape from the trap in which he was caught. It is just where the railroad crosses the New London runs down to the waterfront and crosses at grade all the tracks of the railroads. Out of the way of the cars, which are running on the New London runs down to the waterfront and crosses at grade all the tracks of the railroads. Out of the way of the cars, which are running on the New London runs down to the waterfront and crosses at grade all the tracks of the railroads.

State Tax Commissioner William H. Cady is retaining cities and towns that the state tax must be paid before November 10.

Boarding houses about the city are having an unusually busy and prosperous season, many of them having to refuse many applicants.

Botanists are improving their opportunity to study the last of the fall flowers. Many interesting specimens are found in Mohegan park.

The board of directors of the Universalist church in Meriden, Tuesday, at 10 a. m.

It is noted in various places that last week was the healthiest week in the city, the death rate being low, and fewer contagious cases being reported.

Capt. Thomas Hamilton and Surg. Lafayette G. Rudd of the East Lyme street railway have gone to Atlantic City to attend the annual street railway men's convention.

The general conference of Congregational churches of Connecticut is to be held with the Danbury church on Tuesday, November 14, to provide delegates are expected to be present.

A new concrete sidewalk is being put in on Cliff street in front of the Peck-Williams property. The new sidewalk was laid by the city, and was granted at this point at a recent council meeting.

Friends of Mrs. Mary Riley of No. 61 Bowtell avenue are pleased to learn that she has been relieved of catarracts and has entirely recovered her sight through an operation performed by Dr. A. Peck five weeks ago.

Mrs. Emma Shaw Coleclough, whose summer home is in Thompson, is to lecture at Churchville house, Providence, on alternate Wednesday mornings, beginning October 25, on her experience during several visits to South America.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kruck of Lee avenue, Norwich Town, have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Mary Amelia, to Frederick Karkut, on the evening of Wednesday, October 25, at 7.30 o'clock at the German Lutheran church.

Walter H. Lee of Niantic has sold 300 acres of his woodland for sale to a New London purchaser, who has already begun installing a sawmill, and will cut down the trees, haul them to the mill, and to run the sawmill.

Work began Monday with a force of about twenty men on the new wharf building for the American Breakwater company of Philadelphia, which company recently purchased the 200-acre Bollen farm north of the navy yard. The wharf will be about 1,000 feet long.

Worcester papers state that the officials of All Saints' Episcopal church are puzzled over the seating problem for October 15, when Bishop-elect Thomas P. Davies is to be consecrated. The church accommodates but 800, yet 900 or more are expected to be issued for the services, at 10.30 a. m.

Ribbons, candies, tiny flags, etc. are selling well for Columbus day favors on Thursday. The colors in the flag today are red, white and green, and in the flag of Spain, under which Columbus sailed through the beneficence of King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella, the stripes are red and yellow.

Arrangements are progressing for the field day of the Connecticut society, Sons of the American Revolution, to be held in New London, October 17. A banquet will be held at the Hotel Crandall, and 200 members and their guests will be taken in automobiles for visits to historic spots about the city.

At the Brockton fair, the bull Bessie's Duke, secured recently by Thomas W. Lawson from Dr. Morgan of Hadley, who has a fine kind of Jersey cow, was sold for $1,000, and was awarded the grand champion award on all the grounds. Martha's Duke has been under the care of Walter J. Condit, herman at the Hadley farm, since the animal was six months old.

In hunting rabbits a dog or ferret or other may be used from September 30 to January 15, from the beginning of the open season until the end, but a gun may be used only from September 30 to January 15, and some of them would shoot birds.

The semi-annual meeting of the local county medical association will be held next Tuesday at Mansfield, where Dr. J. H. Stafford Springs, as usual. The change in place is made on account of an invitation from the superintendent of the new Connecticut colony for epileptics at Mansfield to meet there and inspect the privilege of certification of pupils to the Academy. The system is as follows: All schools that graduate more than one in the year may send any or all the highest half of the class by certification instead of examination. Schools whose graduates have more than one in the year may send a third in the same way.

Surprise Party.
At the homes of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Church a surprise party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Potter. Friends and relatives from Norwich, Truro, and other places were present. A shower was given the bride and groom, consisting of china, glassware and silver. Games were played and a lunch was served. The evening was most pleasantly spent.

Dr. H. M. Bishop a Director.
The bank of Southern California and the Globe Savings bank of Los Angeles have consolidated, stated the Los Angeles Times. The new bank, the combined banks will be $2,000,000, with deposits of $1,500,000. One of the directors is Dr. H. M. Bishop, formerly of this city, where he is well known homeopathic physician.

PERSONAL

George Gley has returned to Mystic from Norwich.

Francis Martin of Bridgeport is visiting friends in Norwich.

Arthur Fitzgerald, who is a policeman in Troy, N. Y., is visiting relatives on Summit street.

Clarence E. Day, formerly of this city is now superintendent of the Holyoke Box & Lumber Co.

Major and Mrs. Hadial A. Hull and family of New London have closed their summer home at Quaker Hill.

Miss Della Marshall of Norwich has returned, after spending the past two weeks at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Tremblah Gleason, of Minerva street, Derby.

Horace F. Burdick left North Stonington Sunday morning for Paton, California, to bring home his son, Frederick, who has been seriously ill for some time.

Captain Crandall of the steamer Restless, who has made his home at Fishers island during the summer, has brought his family back to New London for the winter.

CONNECTICUT'S DEATH TRAP.
The Railroad Crossing at New London a Dangerous Place.

As we read in the New London Day, says the Hartford Courant, that the crossing tender at the State street railroad, which has been in use for 18 months' service. We do not blame him; indeed, we congratulate him on his escape from the trap in which he was caught. It is just where the railroad crosses the New London runs down to the waterfront and crosses at grade all the tracks of the railroads. Out of the way of the cars, which are running on the New London runs down to the waterfront and crosses at grade all the tracks of the railroads.

State Tax Commissioner William H. Cady is retaining cities and towns that the state tax must be paid before November 10.

Boarding houses about the city are having an unusually busy and prosperous season, many of them having to refuse many applicants.

Botanists are improving their opportunity to study the last of the fall flowers. Many interesting specimens are found in Mohegan park.

The board of directors of the Universalist church in Meriden, Tuesday, at 10 a. m.

PERSONAL

George Gley has returned to Mystic from Norwich.

Francis Martin of Bridgeport is visiting friends in Norwich.

Arthur Fitzgerald, who is a policeman in Troy, N. Y., is visiting relatives on Summit street.

Clarence E. Day, formerly of this city is now superintendent of the Holyoke Box & Lumber Co.

Major and Mrs. Hadial A. Hull and family of New London have closed their summer home at Quaker Hill.

Miss Della Marshall of Norwich has returned, after spending the past two weeks at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Tremblah Gleason, of Minerva street, Derby.

Horace F. Burdick left North Stonington Sunday morning for Paton, California, to bring home his son, Frederick, who has been seriously ill for some time.

Captain Crandall of the steamer Restless, who has made his home at Fishers island during the summer, has brought his family back to New London for the winter.

CONNECTICUT'S DEATH TRAP.
The Railroad Crossing at New London a Dangerous Place.

As we read in the New London Day, says the Hartford Courant, that the crossing tender at the State street railroad, which has been in use for 18 months' service. We do not blame him; indeed, we congratulate him on his escape from the trap in which he was caught. It is just where the railroad crosses the New London runs down to the waterfront and crosses at grade all the tracks of the railroads. Out of the way of the cars, which are running on the New London runs down to the waterfront and crosses at grade all the tracks of the railroads.

State Tax Commissioner William H. Cady is retaining cities and towns that the state tax must be paid before November 10.

Boarding houses about the city are having an unusually busy and prosperous season, many of them having to refuse many applicants.

Botanists are improving their opportunity to study the last of the fall flowers. Many interesting specimens are found in Mohegan park.

The board of directors of the Universalist church in Meriden, Tuesday, at 10 a. m.

It is noted in various places that last week was the healthiest week in the city, the death rate being low, and fewer contagious cases being reported.

Capt. Thomas Hamilton and Surg. Lafayette G. Rudd of the East Lyme street railway have gone to Atlantic City to attend the annual street railway men's convention.

The general conference of Congregational churches of Connecticut is to be held with the Danbury church on Tuesday, November 14, to provide delegates are expected to be present.

A new concrete sidewalk is being put in on Cliff street in front of the Peck-Williams property. The new sidewalk was laid by the city, and was granted at this point at a recent council meeting.

Friends of Mrs. Mary Riley of No. 61 Bowtell avenue are pleased to learn that she has been relieved of catarracts and has entirely recovered her sight through an operation performed by Dr. A. Peck five weeks ago.

Mrs. Emma Shaw Coleclough, whose summer home is in Thompson, is to lecture at Churchville house, Providence, on alternate Wednesday mornings, beginning October 25, on her experience during several visits to South America.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kruck of Lee avenue, Norwich Town, have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Mary Amelia, to Frederick Karkut, on the evening of Wednesday, October 25, at 7.30 o'clock at the German Lutheran church.

Walter H. Lee of Niantic has sold 300 acres of his woodland for sale to a New London purchaser, who has already begun installing a sawmill, and will cut down the trees, haul them to the mill, and to run the sawmill.

Work began Monday with a force of about twenty men on the new wharf building for the American Breakwater company of Philadelphia, which company recently purchased the 200-acre Bollen farm north of the navy yard. The wharf will be about 1,000 feet long.

Worcester papers state that the officials of All Saints' Episcopal church are puzzled over the seating problem for October 15, when Bishop-elect Thomas P. Davies is to be consecrated. The church accommodates but 800, yet 900 or more are expected to be issued for the services, at 10.30 a. m.

Ribbons, candies, tiny flags, etc. are selling well for Columbus day favors on Thursday. The colors in the flag today are red, white and green, and in the flag of Spain, under which Columbus sailed through the beneficence of King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella, the stripes are red and yellow.

Arrangements are progressing for the field day of the Connecticut society, Sons of the American Revolution, to be held in New London, October 17. A banquet will be held at the Hotel Crandall, and 200 members and their guests will be taken in automobiles for visits to historic spots about the city.

At the Brockton fair, the bull Bessie's Duke, secured recently by Thomas W. Lawson from Dr. Morgan of Hadley, who has a fine kind of Jersey cow, was sold for $1,000, and was awarded the grand champion award on all the grounds. Martha's Duke has been under the care of Walter J. Condit, herman at the Hadley farm, since the animal was six months old.

In hunting rabbits a dog or ferret or other may be used from September 30 to January 15, from the beginning of the open season until the end, but a gun may be used only from September 30 to January 15, and some of them would shoot birds.

The semi-annual meeting of the local county medical association will be held next Tuesday at Mansfield, where Dr. J. H. Stafford Springs, as usual. The change in place is made on account of an invitation from the superintendent of the new Connecticut colony for epileptics at Mansfield to meet there and inspect the privilege of certification of pupils to the Academy. The system is as follows: All schools that graduate more than one in the year may send any or all the highest half of the class by certification instead of examination. Schools whose graduates have more than one in the year may send a third in the same way.

Surprise Party.
At the homes of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Church a surprise party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Potter. Friends and relatives from Norwich, Truro, and other places were present. A shower was given the bride and groom, consisting of china, glassware and silver. Games were played and a lunch was served. The evening was most pleasantly spent.

Dr. H. M. Bishop a Director.
The bank of Southern California and the Globe Savings bank of Los Angeles have consolidated, stated the Los Angeles Times. The new bank, the combined banks will be $2,000,000, with deposits of $1,500,000. One of the directors is Dr. H. M. Bishop, formerly of this city, where he is well known homeopathic physician.

PERSONAL

George Gley has returned to Mystic from Norwich.

Francis Martin of Bridgeport is visiting friends in Norwich.

Arthur Fitzgerald, who is a policeman in Troy, N. Y., is visiting relatives on Summit street.

Clarence E. Day, formerly of this city is now superintendent of the Holyoke Box & Lumber Co.

Major and Mrs. Hadial A. Hull and family of New London have closed their summer home at Quaker Hill.

Miss Della Marshall of Norwich has returned, after spending the past two weeks at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Tremblah Gleason, of Minerva street, Derby.

Horace F. Burdick left North Stonington Sunday morning for Paton, California, to bring home his son, Frederick, who has been seriously ill for some time.

Captain Crandall of the steamer Restless, who has made his home at Fishers island during the summer, has brought his family back to New London for the winter.

CONNECTICUT'S DEATH TRAP.
The Railroad Crossing at New London a Dangerous Place.

As we read in the New London Day, says the Hartford Courant, that the crossing tender at the State street railroad, which has been in use for 18 months' service. We do not blame him; indeed, we congratulate him on his escape from the trap in which he was caught. It is just where the railroad crosses the New London runs down to the waterfront and crosses at grade all the tracks of the railroads. Out of the way of the cars, which are running on the New London runs down to the waterfront and crosses at grade all the tracks of the railroads.

State Tax Commissioner William H. Cady is retaining cities and towns that the state tax must be paid before November 10.

Boarding houses about the city are having an unusually busy and prosperous season, many of them having to refuse many applicants.

Botanists are improving their opportunity to study the last of the fall flowers. Many interesting specimens are found in Mohegan park.

The board of directors of the Universalist church in Meriden, Tuesday, at 10 a. m.

PERSONAL

George Gley has returned to Mystic from Norwich.

Francis Martin of Bridgeport is visiting friends in Norwich.

Arthur Fitzgerald, who is a policeman in Troy, N. Y., is visiting relatives on Summit street.

Clarence E. Day, formerly of this city is now superintendent of the Holyoke Box & Lumber Co.

Major and Mrs. Hadial A. Hull and family of New London have closed their summer home at Quaker Hill.

Miss Della Marshall of Norwich has returned, after spending the past two weeks at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Tremblah Gleason, of Minerva street, Derby.

Horace F. Burdick left North Stonington Sunday morning for Paton, California, to bring home his son, Frederick, who has been seriously ill for some time.

Captain Crandall of the steamer Restless, who has made his home at Fishers island during the summer, has brought his family back to New London for the winter.

CONNECTICUT'S DEATH TRAP.
The Railroad Crossing at New London a Dangerous Place.

As we read in the New London Day, says the Hartford Courant, that the crossing tender at the State street railroad, which has been in use for 18 months' service. We do not blame him; indeed, we congratulate him on his escape from the trap in which he was caught. It is just where the railroad crosses the New London runs down to the waterfront and crosses at grade all the tracks of the railroads. Out of the way of the cars, which are running on the New London runs down to the waterfront and crosses at grade all the tracks of the railroads.